Kohberg Bakery Group A/S

Danish Bakery

In a small Danish town in Southern Jutland, master baker Alfred Kohberg opened the doors to his artisan bakery in 1969. Over the years, two more bakeries have been added, and today, Kohberg is Denmark's largest Danish- and family-owned bakery.

At Kohberg, the secret is great craftsmanship and good-quality ingredients. We go to great lengths to ensure our customers the best bread experiences.

All our recipes are developed by our skilled bakers who know their craft. They ensure a consistent quality and maintain our proud Danish baking traditions in the way the bread and pastries are baked.

Label Overview

We bake with flour from cereals grown in Denmark without straw-shortening agents and without pesticides containing glyphosate. With Danish flour, the individual bread emits approx. 20% less carbon than if we use flour that has been brought here from abroad.

The red "Ø" mark is a guarantee that an organic product has been checked by the Danish authorities. They are regularly checking the farms and companies who produce, process, package or label the organic goods in Denmark.

With the EU's organic label, it shows that the product is organic and has been produced and checked according to the guidelines in the EU's organic regulation.

DK-ØKO-100

The Green Heart is a guarantee that the products do not contain any kind of animal products – such as milk, eggs and honey.

Whole grain means that all parts of the grain are included - including the seed and husk, where most of the fibre, vitamins and minerals are. The Whole Grain label requires products to contain whole grains, as well as additional requirements for fat, sugar, salt and fibre.

The keyhole label is a common Nordic nutrition label that makes it easy to choose healthier options and follow the dietary guidelines. To get the Nordic Keyhole label, a food must be high in fibre and whole grains, and lower in fat, unsaturated fat, sugar and salt.

Danish Pastries

- Traditional craftsmanship & quality ingredients -

Authentic Danish Pastry

Danish pastry is a unique part of Danish baking history that dates back more than 150 years.

The special lamination technique was originally brought to Copenhagen by Austrian bakers in the 1850's. Shortly after, Danish bakers started to develop sweet fillings, and Danish pastry was born.

Since then, Danish pastry has continuously been developed and refined up until today. The secret lies in the special craftsmanship mastered by only the very best of pastry bakers.

The result shows when the pastry is baked. Perfect lamination creates a natural raising process and gives the extremely light, crispy and flaky structure that is unique for Danish pastry.

Rye Bread

- Baked after proud Danish traditions -

Rye bread is the very heart of Kohberg - our DNA

When Alfred Kohberg founded Kohberg in 1969, rye bread was his pride and joy. Today we continue to bake our rye bread with pride and good craftsmanship at Alfred Kohberg's rye bread bakery in Bolderslev.

We maintain our Danish baking traditions, such as our rye sourdough. This is what gives the bread its flavour and texture, and every day our bakers look after and care for the sourdough, so we can always provide consistent quality.

We bake a unique, broad selection of frozen rye bread in many different sizes and flavours – and we are one of two leading rye bread suppliers to the Danish market.
